NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 1892.

THE EVENING WORLD---ONE CENT BROOKLYN EDITION OF YOUNG FALES AT BAR.

Second Day of the Trial of the Accused Boy-Murderer.

Witnesses Tell of Old Cashier Haydon's Terrible Injuries.

of the Potter Blenching Works, April 30 last, was continued to-day and drew compression of the brain.

County Physician Wrightson testified that he saw Haydon on the operating table in st. Barnabas Hospital a few minutes after 11 ociock A. M. April 30. Haydon could speak, but could give no satisfactory answers to questions put to him. The next day Dr. Wrightson made an autopey, and he described in detail the injuries found. He, two, was positive that one of the injuries on Haydon's head was inflicted by a flat and dull instrument.

Judge Henry Objected to the admission of Falce's statement, or content of the definition of the Social statement.
